

POSITION TITLE: Community Inclusion Worker

TERM: On-Call, Casual

SUPERVISOR: Integrated Support Team Leader

Secwepemc Child and Family Services Agency (SCFSA) is a progressive and culturally focused agency supporting family safety that endeavors to provide outstanding practice to First Nations families residing in the communities of the seven-member bands; Adams Lake, Bonaparte, Neskonlith, Simpcw, Skeetchestn, Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc, and Whispering Pines/Canton and who reside in Kamloops.

Striving to provide exceptional family healing services through prevention-based practice, SCFSA incorporates a Signs of Safety® framework as an innovative, strengths-based, and safety-organized approach to child protection casework.

Job Summary

The Community Inclusion Worker reports to the Integrated Support Team Leader. As a Community Inclusion Worker, you will assist Indigenous adults with developmental disabilities to participate in personal, social, vocational, and volunteer opportunities. The services are determined by the Individual and based in their specific goals and preferences in cultural identity. You will encourage and empower the person to be independent and self-determined and to live the life they envision while maintaining excellent standards of care, health, and safety. Your natural ability to care for others and work collaboratively towards a goal will allow you to influence your person's success.
